Te Mana Kaitiaki o Ngā Taonga Tuku Iho (Kaupae 4) [Ref: 2345]

New Zealand Certificate in Māori Heritage and Wāhi Tapu (Level 4)

This qualification is intended for whānau, hapū, and others who work in the area of resource management, specifically in the protection and management of Māori heritage, including wāhi tapu and wāhi tūpuna; and are seeking a formal qualification to work independently at an intermediate level.

The purpose of the qualification is to provide whānau, hapū, iwi, hapori and other entities with graduates who are able to fulfil kaupapa Māori based advocacy roles and activities at an intermediate level. Te iwi Māori and Aotearoa will benefit from having graduates who are able to provide, from an āhuatanga Māori perspective, the skills and knowledge to protect and manage Māori heritage and sites of significance to Māori – Cultural and Spiritual – for the benefit of current and future generations.

Graduates of this qualification will understand the value of Māori heritage and sites of significance, and will be able to use their skills and knowledge based on kotahitanga, whanaungatanga, kaitiakitanga, te pono me te tika and rangatiratanga to independently apply the tools available for their protection and management.

For more information on the qualification details, please refer to the NZQA website or scan the QR code at the top of the page.

Education Pathways

This qualification may lead to Rumakihia te Taiao (Kaupae 6) [Ref: 2347], or other Level 5 mātauranga Māori qualifications.

Career Opportunities

This qualification provides a pathway for graduates to develop capability and capacity to protect, maintain, and enrich mātauranga taonga tuku iho for whānau, hapū, iwi/community for future and current generations.

Graduates of this certificate will have the transferable skills and knowledge to act effectively across a range of roles including the following:

- Hapū/Iwi Monitors
- Heritage advisors
- Archaeology Assistants
- Advisers to and/or Consultants in Local and Regional Government, iwi resource management units, Planners and Developers
- Environment Representatives for whānau hapū iwi and the hapori on local, regional, and national bodies, and Government Agencies.

Review of Unit Standards

The Māori Environment and Wāhi Tapu unit standards are being reviewed during May through to November 2015 to align the outcomes of the standards with the newly listed New Zealand qualifications. If you would like to have input into the review, or would like further information regarding the review, and the development of new Wāhi Tapu unit standards, please contact Māori Qualification Services.

Wāhi Tapu unit standards can contribute towards achievement of the National Certificates in Educational Achievement (NCEA).
