

Overview of the derived grade process

A derived grade is available to candidates who are entered for an externally assessed standard and for an approved reason are unable to attend an NZQA external examination session(s) or whose performance is impaired in preparing for, or during, an examination session(s). Procedures and guidelines for making an application are provided at the following pages:

Making an application

Information for candidates

Information for Principal's Nominees
