

Review of Core Generic unit standards

19 Apr 2017

NZQA National Qualifications Services is about to review the unit standards in three Core Generic domains: Self-Management, Social and Cooperative Skills, and Work and Study Skills in June-August 2017.

We are interested in your views before we start, to help us focus more precisely on the desirable outcomes for the review.

Further information is available from the Review of Core Generic unit standards.
