Consider the best options and choices to advance your whānau aspirations;

Prepare a plan of action that is relevant to you and your whānau.

"Thank you for giving me this opportunity to learn more about helping my mokopuna achieve their aims and aspirations."

(Grandparent, December 2012).

"It was really great and informative. Now I know what my children are talking about when they're telling me about NCEA."

(Parent, January 2013).

"NCEA & the Whānau has enabled our organisation to better inform whānau, so they ask the right questions of teachers, schools and tertiary institutions. It gives them the skills, confidence and knowledge to be an active participant in the system, to ask questions without feeling they are asking the wrong thing."

(Iwi Organisation, January 2013).

"Excellent workshop! (Champion name) is an excellent communicator and made everything relatable and easy to understand."

(Parent, December 2012).

NCEA & the Whānau

WORKSHOP

Want to know how NCEA works and how you can help your tamariki succeed?

WHAT IS NCEA?

The National Certificate of Educational Achievement (NCEA) is the main national qualification for secondary school students in New Zealand.

WHAT GETS COVERED IN THE WORKSHOP?

A set of clear, straightforward messages and information about NCEA developed especially for parents and whānau.

The one hour workshop includes key messages, three short videos, group discussions and activities.

WHO IS THE TARGET AUDIENCE?

The target audience is whānau of Māori learners in years 7-13.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

- Whānau are provided with quality information about NCEA,
- Parents develop a plan based on their whānau aspirations, and
- Whānau are empowered to engage with their child's school and encouraged to take action to support their child to achieve NCEA.

WHAT IS NCEA & THE WHĀNAU?

NCEA & the Whānau is an information programme that provides information and guidance to parents to better understand NCEA.

WHAT DOES NCEA & THE WHĀNAU AIM TO ACHIEVE?

NCEA & the Whānau aims to increase parents' understanding of NCEA and provides advice on how parents can support their children/whānau to achieve NCEA.

WHO IS INVOLVED?

NCEA & the Whānau is a collaboration of Education sector agencies including the Ministry of Education, Careers NZ, the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA), Tertiary Education Commission and the Education Review Office. NZQA is the lead agency.

WHY IS THIS KAUPAPA IMPORTANT?

Māori learners achieve education success when they have whānau support, aspirations, and a plan to reach those aspirations.
