Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, Level 7 achievement objective Communicating and Interpreting in the Music – Sound Arts strand; and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Music, Ministry of Education, 2011 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- Perform* involves live presentation of music to an audience.

Perform effectively involves the performance being technically secure, stylistically appropriate and confidently communicated to the audience.

Perform convincingly involves the performance being assured, musically expressive and demonstrating interpretive understanding.

- 3 Substantial pieces involves the music having some significance and/or complexity in the repertoire for the genre. The performance must demonstrate technical, musical, and presentation skills appropriate to students in at least their fourth year of instrumental study and/or through group itinerant tuition. Each piece of music must be of sufficient length to demonstrate these skills.
 - 4 The two pieces of music may be performed on different occasions.
 - 5 Traditional and contemporary forms of Māori music may be used for assessment against this standard.
 - 6 Improvisation can be used as evidence to meet the requirements of this standard.
 - 7 Featured soloist may be unaccompanied or accompanied, or a featured soloist in a small group. The featured soloist must be easily heard and seen, and must play a separate or uniquely identifiable part.
 - 8 The performance of each piece of music must be assessed holistically to provide an overall judgement based on the weight of evidence across both performances. This means considering the musicality and merits of the whole performance, rather than placing emphasis on small technical inaccuracies or minor slip-ups.
 - 9 The assessment criteria must be applied to provide an overall judgement based on the weight of evidence across both performances.
