Pristine Recycling has also decided that it needs to solve the issue of the district councils having limited capacity to store plastic waste. As a result, it is introducing a change to the collection part of the production process, initially in Oslo. Here, the collection will not be carried out by district councils, but by a company that has large storage facilities. Pristine Recycling has two companies from which it can choose – one in Norway and the other in Finland. Pristine Recycling has central government permission for the chosen firm to collect plastic in each country. If the chosen company impresses Pristine Recycling, it will win the contract for collection in both Oslo and Helsinki.

	Using Resource D, explain ONE benefit to Pristine Recycling of outsourcing the collection part of the production process to Zen Recycling .
