FIRST TEXT: 国际运动比赛/International sporting events

ASSESSOR'S
USE ONLY

Read the text on page 2 of the resource booklet. Use it to answer Question One. Answer the question in your choice of English, te reo Māori, and/or Chinese.

QUESTION ONE

Based on the text, what is the impact of hosting international sporting events on the host countries? Justify your answers by providing your interpretations of the examples from the text. 根据文章内容, 主办国际运动比赛对主办国有何影响? 请从文章中举例, 用自己的话说明你的看法。

(a) Short-term impact/短期影响:

For New Zealand the short term impact was the advantages & disadvantages of many people coming. Many people coming is very good for the tourism^{travel} industry. However there were also negative effects of these tourists. For example many people coming made the hotels^{rooms} expensive. If people did not book rooms then they would have to pay from 200-800 dollars. The ticket sales were also a short term problem. If sports fans didn't get tickets they would buy them online where they were very expensive. These things could cause tourists to not like their holidays so if New Zealanders do not provide friendly service it could have had short term and long term effects on the industry. (EXTRA PAPER)

(b) Long-term impact/长期影响:

The long term impacts for New Zealand include the effects of people coming and the event overall. ~~People coming to watch~~ Tourists coming to watch the rugby would learn about NZ culture, ~~the people~~ ^{they} would stay in people's memory for a long time and may be cause people to come back in the future. Also hosting the event is very important for long term sports culture in New Zealand. Sports are very important for people in New Zealanders however it is more about fitness and health than winning. ~~Therefore~~ This is good sportsmanship and the rugby world cup helped to teach people in NZ about sportsmanship and what it means. This was an important long term impact on New Zealanders. (EXTRA PAPER)

SECOND TEXT: 蔡康永 – 说话之道 /An adaptation of Ways of Speaking by Kangyong Cai

Read the text on page 3 of the resource booklet. Use it to answer Question Two. Answer the question in your choice of English, te reo Māori, and/or Chinese.

QUESTION TWO

- (a) "Do not cause other people problems. We must find our own solutions." Explain in your own words what the 'problems' in the text refer to. How can Lanlan solve these 'problems'?

“不要给别人问题，我们应该自己学习找方法。” 请用你的理解解释文中的“问题”是什么。兰兰可以怎样解决这个“问题”？

Lanlan can solve these problems by changing her way of speaking. ~~to~~ ^{saying} ~~in~~ ~~the~~ "I don't like Japanese food" causes her boyfriend many problems. He must either find a new restaurant for everyone or tell her she doesn't need to come, both of which are hard to do. To fix these problems, she can say "I will come to the restaurant after the meal is finished" that way she can still be at the party without inconveniencing her boyfriend or anyone else. She could also offer to help her boyfriend move restaurants so that they could work as a team to solve her problem.

- (b) How does the author imply ways to become a likable person through the text? 作者怎样透过文章来隐射如何当一个让人喜欢的人？

The author implies that it is not about how you look that makes you likable, it is how you speak and act. If your friend is beautiful ~~but~~ then your first impression may be good but if they are not friendly to you you will not like them. On the other hand you are more likely to like someone if they are not beautiful but can talk well.

You need to be able to talk and act in a way that does not cause others problems. The better you talk the more likeable you will be.

THIRD TEXT: 夏日美白计划 / Summer whitening plan

ASSESSOR'S
USE ONLY

Read the text on page 4 of the resource booklet. Use it to answer Question Three. Answer the question in your choice of English, te reo Māori and/or Chinese.

QUESTION THREE

"This article encourages Chinese girls to look pale." Explain in your own words if you agree or disagree with this statement. Provide examples and evidence from the article (not the images) to support your argument.

"本文鼓励中国女性美白。" 请用自己的话解释你是否同意这个说法。从文章中（而非图片）举例支持你的看法。

This article does encourage Chinese girls to look pale but it also ~~encourages~~ tells of other ways to be fit & beautiful. ~~But the~~ The first sentence states that summer is soon and that girls should all look pale*. It also encourages girls not to spend too much time in the sun and if they do go outside to wear a hat and sunglasses. This implies that the sun will tan you and make you less pale which is seen as bad. The article also encourages girls to clean their faces in the morning and evening, particularly before bed. However it also states that it has heard that washing your face with milk at ~~am~~ can make you more and more pale. This makes something gross like washing your face with milk sound like a good idea to make girls white, further encouraging them that being pale is a good thing. The article also celebrates the benefits of eating and drinking well but also boasts the value of drinking ~~tea~~ green tea again to help whiten skin. At the end it does say that if you have pale skin that does not mean you are definitely pretty, you have to exercise too however it does say that whitening makes you prettier and more like a girl. 1a. There were many short term effects on China due to the olympics. One short term impact was unity of the people as it was not just the government ~~help~~ organised the event, many people came to gether to help prepare. Many people felt this was the patriotic / loving your country ~~and people way~~. * Another short term consequence was that many high rise buildings and beautiful parks were established. This became a long term consequence as people could use these parks long after.

1b. There were many long term consequences for China too. For the olympics many people learned to speak english to help tourists. Being able to speak english would help them gain many long term work opportunities. Another long term consequence was that ~~people set up~~ parks and high rise buildings were established for the event which could be used far into the future.

7/3 I do not agree with telling girls they must be pale to be pretty. It is good that this article encourages girls to be healthy and eat, drink and exercise well but telling them they cannot be beautiful if

They are not pale is bad. Many of the suggestions they make are unhealthy too. For example not going outside into the sun can be bad for both physical health and social life. Also washing your face with milk could be bad for you and is a waste of milk.
