Level 3 Social Studies 2020

Level 3 Social Studies 2020

Standards 91596 91598

Part A: Commentary

The concept of perspective, as used in a Social Studies context, continues to be problematic at Level 3.

The Teaching and Learning Guide for L3 Social Studies states, "the points of view people / groups hold, which are often framed as 'I think that ... '. Frequently, this point of view is shaped by a person / groups' values, which explain more about the underpinning beliefs. Values in turn are often informed by a perspective or world view which represents a set of ideas which can be explored across groups in society – for example, a particular religious, cultural or political perspective."

Candidates at Level 3 are advised to gain a nuanced understanding of what an ideology / perspective is. After potentially studying Social Studies for three years, candidates should know to avoid using ideologies, such as 'social justice'. It is more appropriate to use an ideology such as 'humanitarianism' instead.
