

Assessment Specifications

Level 3 Home Economics 2024

Published in December 2023

General information

Domain:	Home Economics
Assessment method:	Examination
Assessment medium:	Online or printed paper
Standards:	91470, 91471
Home Economics subject page
National secondary examinations timetable

Information relating to all achievement standards

Candidates will be required to use the resources provided for each achievement standard. In the examinations, the resources will be provided in separate resource booklets.

Planning spaces will not be marked.

Further information about digital external assessment can be found on the NZQA website at Digital external assessment.

Specific information for individual achievement standards

Standard:	91470
Domain:	Home Economics
Title:	Evaluate conflicting nutritional information relevant to well-being in New Zealand society
Version:	2
Number of credits:	4

Candidates will apply their own knowledge and understanding to evaluate conflicting information in resources provided by comparing and contrasting it in relation to information from their studies.

Credibility of nutritional information is based on evidence, reliability, motivation, and source of the information / research.

Candidates will be expected to have an understanding of sports nutrition.

Standard:	91471
Domain:	Home Economics
Title:	Analyse the influences of food advertising on well-being
Version:	2
Number of credits:	4

Candidates will be expected to explain a range of techniques to analyse advertisements provided. Techniques are found in Explanatory Note 4 of the standard.

Candidates will be expected to identify and critique the explicit and implicit messages conveyed in one of the advertisements provided in relation to food choices and well-being / hauora.