2007 National Qualifications Framework Results Release

During the period 17-25 January 2008 the Qualification Authority will be mailing results to the 140 000 students who sat the 384 externally assessed standards in 2007.

Students and schools will also be able to access their results by logging on to the New Zealand Qualifications Authority website on the afternoon of the first day that results are released.

Schools will be able to download an electronic file of individual candidate results at the same time as candidates are sent their paper result notice in the post.

Provisional National Statistics

The release of National Secondary Statistics for National Qualifications Framework results is anticipated for late January 2008, although all data will be treated as provisional until it is finalised in April 2008. Similarly, Scholarship statistics will be made available in February in provisional form with the final data being released in April.
