1 purpose

The National Certificate in Sport (Umpiring-Officiating) (Level 3) [Ref: 0445] recognises the skills required to manage local club, school or age-group teams at intermediate to top levels in the delivery of sport, with little or no direct supervision. Certificate holders are able to apply their knowledge and skills to familiar and new situations in the delivery of sport, involving complex, non-routine tasks of a broad range of variety.

This qualification recognises the specific skills of the sports coach, and is therefore distinct from the National Certificate in Sport (Level 3) with strands in Event Management, Sport Administration, and Team Management [Ref: 0446], and the National Certificate in Sport (Coaching) (Level 4) [Ref: 0444]. Each holder of this certificate will apply the specific skills of umpiring and officiating to their chosen sport code. The National Certificate in Sport (Level 2) [Ref: 0493] provides a generic introductory level sport qualification.

This qualification contains the Sport, Fitness and Recreation Industry Training Organisation Customer Service Award.

2 regulations for the qualification

2.1 entry information for programmes of education and training assessed against the unit standards in the qualification

Open. However, people working in this industry require physical coordination and good levels of mental, physical and emotional fitness; as well as requiring a wide range of people skills on which to base judgements and decisions.

2.2 recognition of current competence

Recognition of current competence may be granted on application either to providers of unit standards who are accredited to recognise prior learning according to NZQA requirements; or to Sfriso for recognition of unit standards, or for parts, or the whole of the qualification according to procedures it has established (to meet NZQA requirements).

2.3 summary of qualification requirements

This qualification will be awarded to people who have met the requirements of the compulsory and elective sections.

5.2 National Qualifications Framework transition

Version 4

This qualification was reviewed and issued as version 4 in April 2002 to take into account the review of the Community Recreation and Sport unit standards and industry initiatives.

Changes to structure and content

- Credit total has increased from 65 to 67.
- The domain of recreation management including programmes and events has been split into two domains - recreation management and recreation programmes and events.
- Unit standard 1984 has been replaced with 5365.
- Levels and titles of reviewed unit standards updated.
- Greater flexibility in the elective component by increasing the range to a minimum of 11 credits drawn from unit standards anywhere on the National Qualifications Framework.

For the purposes of this qualification, people who have gained credit for expiring unit standard 1984 will be exempt from the requirement to gain credit for unit standard 5365, which is considered more appropriate for this qualification.

Any version of a unit standard contained within this qualification which retains its original unit standard identification number will continue to meet the requirements of this qualification.

Sfrito would like to encourage people currently working towards an earlier version of this qualification to transfer their results to the new version to ensure they continue to meet the latest standards, however they may choose to complete an earlier version. The last date for the award an earlier version of this qualification is 31 December 2004.

Previous versions of the qualification

Version 3 was issued in May 2000 to take into account the review of the Community Recreation, Sport, and core health unit standards.

Version 2 was issued in February 1999 to reflect the outcome of the communication skills, core generic and service sector unit standards.

Version 1 was registered in March 1998.
