

National Diploma in Community Recreation (Programme and Event Management) (Level 6)

Level 6

Credits 152

This qualification is expiring. The last date to meet the requirements is 31 December 2012.

Purpose

The National Diploma in Community Recreation (Programme and Event Management) (Level 6) is designed for people with responsibility for running complex programmes and events. Holders of this qualification will have demonstrated a solid foundation in recreation theories and programme and event management as well as skills in written and interpersonal communication, business administration, and marketing.

This qualification is at a senior professional level, targeted at people who have the responsibility of planning, running, and marketing complex programmes and events, and for managing an organisational unit. It also shares some common unit standards with and builds on the competencies recognised in the National Certificate in Community Recreation (Programme and Event Management) (Level 4) [Ref: 0939] and the National Certificate in Community Recreation (Programme and Event Management) (Level 5) [Ref: 0940].

Requirements for Award of Qualification

Award of NZQF National Qualifications

Credit gained for a standard may be used only once to meet the requirements of this qualification.

Unit standards and achievement standards that are equivalent in outcome are mutually exclusive for the purpose of award. The table of mutually exclusive standards is provided on the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) website: <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/standards/standards-exclusion-list/>.

Reviewed standards that continue to recognise the same overall outcome are registered as new versions and retain their identification number (ID). Any version of a standard with the same ID may be used to meet qualification requirements that list the ID and/or that specify the past or current classification of the standard.
