National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 3)

Level   3

Credits   60

Purpose

The National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 3) [Ref: 1076] is a foundation qualification aimed particularly at those people wishing to work within Tourism Māori operations and enterprises.

The qualification has been structured to recognise those skills unique to Tourism Māori. Concepts covered by the compulsory standards include whanaungatanga, manaakitanga, kaitiakitanga and tikanga practices, all of which play an important role in the tourism industry in Aotearoa. The elective section in this qualification allows for the integration of standards from various areas including Computing, Communication Skills, Health and Physical Education as well as Tourism to enhance the candidates ability to work effectively in all facets of the tourism industry.

This qualification provides graduates with the skills, knowledge and attributes that will enable further study in the Tourism Māori area, and provides a pathway to the National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 4) [Ref: 1077] and the National Diploma in Tourism Māori (Level 5) [Ref: 1096].

Credit Range

	Compulsory	Elective
Level 2 credits	-	0-20
Level 3 or above credits	35	5-25

Requirements for Award of Qualification

Award of NZQF Qualifications

Credit gained for a standard may be used only once to meet the requirements of this qualification.

Unit standards and achievement standards that are equivalent in outcome are mutually exclusive for the purpose of award. The table of mutually exclusive standards is provided in the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) website: http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/standards/standards-exclusion-list/.

Reviewed standards that continue to recognise the same overall outcome are registered as new versions and retain their identification number (ID). Any version of a standard with the same ID may be used to meet qualification requirements that list the ID and/or that specify the past or current classification of the standard.
