Guidance Information

1 Assessment

The assessment context for this unit standard is to empower, uplift and maintain korero tuku iho for tikanga practices of local rohe or takiwa. Where local rohe are also occupied by a number of other hapū or iwi, the tangata whenua or mana whenua view will take precedence. Other hapū or iwi views should be encouraged in order to enrich and enhance understanding of key Māori concepts and practices.

Assessment evidence can be gathered and presented in various ways, including oral, visual, written, artwork, social and digital media, dance, drama, and kapa haka performances, photos, roleplay, videos, or portfolios through the collection of naturally occurring evidence.

This unit standard can be assessed either in a workplace setting or within a learning environment.

Attractions refers to local and national attractions organised inside the tourism sector. These may include commemorations, Matariki/ Puanga celebration, Matatini, Waitangi Day celebrations, Te Puia, Te Pā Tū, museums.

Activity refers to local and national activities organised outside of the tourism sector. These may include, hunting competitions, guided tours, excursions, noho marae experience, local marae activities, pōwhiri, retreats, wānanga, hikoi.

Kaitiaki practices may refer to karakia, rāhui, tapu, noa, tiaki, mauri, taiāpure. Ngā Kawai Atua/Tīpuna may include Kupe, Toi, Kiwa, ngā kāpene o ngā waka, Ranginui, Papatūānuku, Tāne, Tangaroa, Rongomātāne, Tāwhirimātea, Haumietiketike, Rūaumoko, Tūmatauenga.

Ngā kōrero tuku iho refers to Māori stories, or histories, which provide a basis or rationale for Māori belief systems and tikanga. They may be found in Māori oral traditions (such as pūrākau, pakiwaitara, whakapapa, waiata, karanga, or whaikōrero) or in written works. They may also be particular to a whānau, hapū, iwi or marae and are often revered as treasured accounts to be passed down the generations.

Tourism Māori refers to an indigenous cultural experience of interaction and engagement centred around Māori cultural heritage, traditions and values providing a unique insight into the world that has helped shaped our land, its Māori people, their traditions, and culture. It encompasses a wide range of activities and attractions that allow manuhiri to engage with tangata whenua.
