Overview

New Zealand Certificate in Business (Māori Business and Management) (Level 5) [Ref: 2712]

This qualification is intended for people wishing to develop their business and management skills and knowledge at a strategic level, and who are interested in stepping-up to management or team-leadership level positions.

This qualification will provide whānau, hapū, iwi, hapori, and New Zealand business entities with people (Māori and non-Māori) who have attained a breadth and depth of business management skills and knowledge predicated on a Māori worldview. Graduates of this qualification will benefit New Zealand business entities by providing a Māori worldview to enhance business operations and the New Zealand economy.

Graduates of this qualification will operate at a strategic management level to enhance the performance and productivity of their organisation utilising a broad range of business skills, including self-management, in a bi- and multi-cultural environment.

For more information on the qualification details, please refer to the NZQA website or scan the QR code at the top of the page.

- consultants
- project and/or event managers
- managers or team leaders
- Business owners and/or operators.

Graduates may also support whānau, hapū, iwi and hapori in paid roles or as volunteers for iwi/hapū rūnanga, authorities, and/or incorporations; boards, land trusts. These positions may include:

- board members or trustees (marae, land trusts)
- Rūnanga council members/representatives.

Review of Unit Standards

The Māori Business and Management unit standards are being reviewed during May through to November 2015 to align the outcomes of the standards with the newly listed New Zealand qualifications. If you would like to have input into the review, or would like further information regarding the review, and the development of new standards, please contact Māori Qualifications Services.

Māori Business and Management unit standards can contribute towards achievement of the National Certificates in Educational Achievement (NCEA).
