Overview

Te Pou Tautoko i te Ora (Kaupae 4)

New Zealand Certificate in Social Services (Māori) (Level 4) [Ref: 2875]

This qualification is intended for those seeking to increase their skills and knowledge to work with tāngata Māori and their whānau in a social services context. Under supervision, graduates will be able to deliver whānau-centred social services, explain legislative requirements and identify conflict situations.

Te Pou Tautoko i te Ora (Kaupae 5)

New Zealand Diploma in Social Services (Māori) (Level 5) [Ref: 2876]

This qualification is intended for those seeking to extend their skills and knowledge to deliver social services to tangata Māori and their whānau. Under broad guidance, graduates will be able to implement whānau-centred models of service delivery in social services contexts, clarify and meet legislative requirements from a mātauranga Māori world view perspective and facilitate a conflict resolution process.

Education Pathways

Subject to any prerequisites, students may continue their study to a Level 5 or 6 qualification, including:

- New Zealand Diploma in Whanau Ora (Level 5) [Ref: 2879]
