National Assessment Facilitator

Your passion for education can make a difference - here's how!

He ngākau māhaki tōu mo ngā tamariki Māori? E hiahia ana koe ki te whakatinana i ngā tino koingo, ngā tino wawata hoki o ō tātou mokopuna i roto i te ao o te Mātauranga?

Nō reira, ko Te Mana Tohu Mātauranga o Aōtearoa te wāhi pai mōu!

We are looking for a National Assessment Facilitator to become part of our Secondary Examinations team.

The roles undertaken by the National Assessment Facilitators are a critical part of the secondary schools examination cycle. National Assessment Facilitators are responsible for:

- Facilitating the setting and production of NCEA and New Zealand Scholarship examinations
- Co-ordinating the marking of NCEA and New Zealand Scholarship examinations
- Recruiting and training contractors for the setting and marking of assessment for NCEA and New Zealand Scholarship
- Providing advice and reports on external assessment

Kia noho takatū ki tō āmua ao!

Qualify for the Future World

NZQA commenced the Future State Programme in 2013, a multi-year programme of work that will make online external assessment a reality. NAFs have a critical role in this work. If this prospect excites you, we are keen to hear from you. Interested in finding out more? Read about the Future State programme.
