Newsletters and circulars

NZQA's newsletters and circulars provide information or seek information from education providers concerning the delivery of the national examinations and qualifications. The circulars cover such matters as entries for qualifications, internal assessment marks, prescription developments and other information about the operation of the annual qualifications cycle.

For further information, get in touch with the "contact person for enquiries" given in each circular.

Tertiary

Tertiary circulars are for tertiary education organisations (and any other interested parties) and relate primarily to:

- operations and issues for the New Zealand Diploma in Business
- general matters (e.g. reporting of credits relating to standards or prescriptions) relating to qualifications on the New Zealand Qualifications Framework.

Framework

New Zealand Qualifications Framework circulars are for all organisations with consent to assess against unit or achievement standards or to deliver programmes leading towards nationally-recognised qualifications. They cover such matters as qualification and standards reviews, national external moderation requirements, standard interpretations, and developments relating to results reporting or recording.
