

New Zealand Scholarship reviews

Applying for a New Zealand Scholarship review

Review deadline

Was Friday, 1 March 2019

Note: you cannot apply for a review for Visual Arts, however you may apply for a reconsideration. Applications for reconsideration using the review application form will not be processed. For information on the process to follow to apply for a reconsideration, see New Zealand Scholarship reconsiderations, or for more detailed information such as what to apply for and fees for New Zealand Scholarship reconsiderations, refer to Scholarship Results Publication.

How long does it take?

A review or reconsideration may take up to six weeks to process. If the outcome of your application might affect University Entrance, please let your chosen University know it may take four weeks for any updated results to become available.

For further information on the process to follow to apply for a review or a reconsideration, see Assessment \(including Examination\) Rules for Schools, or click here for more information relating to NCEA reconsideration and reviews.
