Outcomes and evidence requirements

Outcome 1

Make an informed decision relating to personal income and explain its impacts.

Range decision will be in the context of a life stage and may be consequent on and/or affect a significant life event;
a significant life event may include – travel, employment interruption or change, relationship change, having a child, changing roles within the family, serious accident, serious illness, financial windfall.

Evidence requirements

- 1.1 A relevant personal goal is identified.

Range goal may be financial, social, lifestyle, career;
goal must be specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, time bound.

- 1.2 Financial information relevant to the identified personal goal is gathered to inform decision making.

1.3 Income-related options are identified that may contribute to the achievement of the goal.

Range options may include – further education, change of job or career, change of personal habits, changes to consumption priorities, saving over spending; evidence of two required.

1.4 The option with the most potential to achieve and/or contribute to the goals is identified and at least two reasons for selecting that option are explained.

1.5 Two positive and two negative impacts of the decision are explained.

Range may include impacts on individual, others, present, future, financial, non-financial.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR). The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
