

Review Working Group - Terms of Reference

Vision

‘Mā te huruhuru te manu ka rere’

The review working group will review a suite of qualifications that meet the aspirations of whānau, hapū, and iwi; and empower them to make effective contributions of consequence to te ao Māori both today, and into the future.

The suite of qualifications to be reviewed are Tikanga Māori (Kaupae 2 - 6).

Purpose

The purpose of the review working group is to provide detailed and technical input into the review of the suite of qualifications in line with the objectives and principles outlined in the review plan.

Administration

The review of New Zealand qualifications is based on a contributory model.

MQS will assume the following costs for the review:

- hui costs (meeting venue and catering),
- administration costs.

The following support will also be provided:

- preparing and disseminating agenda and related papers, schedule of meetings and meeting records; documents required for approval to list qualifications; consultation documents and collated feedback from consultation,
- maintaining web pages for information and consultation,
- completing administrative tasks associated with the review including arranging the meeting venue and catering,
- monitoring expenditure and advising of any constraints related to the budget for the review.

Where required, review working group members, or their associated Organisations, will assume the following costs if required:

- travel,
- accommodation and associated costs,
- breakfast and evening meal allowances.

In special circumstances and with prior agreement from the Manager, Qualification Services (NZQA), the following may be provided for agreed persons:

- travel,

- accommodation and meals,
- vehicle and taxi travel reimbursement,
- breakfast and evening meal allowances,
- a fee (when applicable) as stated in NZQA Meeting and Travel Procedures for Third Parties.

Responsibilities of the Review Working Group

The key responsibilities of the review working group is to:

- operate in accordance with the tikanga that safeguard the integrity of both the NZQF and mātauranga Māori,
- focus on the best outcome for the current and future needs of ākonga, iwi, hapū, hapori, stakeholders, and relevant sectors,
- review the suite of qualifications (strategic purpose statements, graduate profiles, education, and employment pathways) based on the analysis of feedback and information gathered from providers, practitioners, the sector, and/or other stakeholders.

Selection Criteria

The review working group will reflect a balance of whānau, hapū, iwi perspectives; and the sector, including industry, education and communities. They will have a collective understanding of:

- qualification development,
- te reo me ngā tikanga,
- tikanga Māori,
- skills and knowledge of Māori concepts and mātauranga Māori,
- whānau, hapū, iwi, hapori Māori needs and aspirations,
- the New Zealand Qualifications Framework (NZQF).

Each member will have:

- credibility with stakeholder groups,
- a depth of sector knowledge and breadth of experience,
- a willingness to be an effective voice and to achieve consensus,
- demonstrated leadership capability.

Responsibilities of members

Members shall:

- commit to the pan-sector purpose of the review,
- contribute constructively and openly to the review of the Tikanga Māori qualifications,
- attend relevant meetings as required,

- confirm minutes,
- respond to communications.

Review working group members will work in collaboration with Māori Qualifications Services (MQS) , the standard setting body for these qualifications.

Working group procedures

Review group term	For the duration of qualification review process.
Quorum	Five members
Decision-making	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ majority however consensus is preferred, ▪ all members have the authority to make decisions in line with the objectives of this process, ▪ where consensus cannot be reached the Review Working Group may be required to vote. In this case a minimum of five members in favour is required for a motion to be carried.
Meeting protocols	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ generosity in all interactions, ▪ full participation in decision making, ▪ outcome focused, ▪ consensus driven, ▪ constructive, ▪ open and honest.
Frequency of meetings	As required. One review hui has been planned. In addition to kanohi ki te kanohi hui, other modes of communication include email and online/video conferencing.
Absence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ there is no replacement person if a member is temporarily unavailable. The member is responsible for communicating with the group and providing their views prior to the meeting, ▪ if the person wishes, they can participate in the meeting through electronic means.