A key belief is that God created us in his image and likeness (13). Euthanasia is wrong because God created human beings and so this means only God can kill us (14). In Genesis it says God created the world and human beings are part of the world, so God created us. If God created us then we cannot take life only God can (14).