The Catholic Church has key beliefs about different types of Justice. Distributive justice (16) is a constant theme of the papal messages for World Food Day; therefore these messages invite the global community to apply the principle of the issue of world hunger (15).