Explanatory Notes

1 Interact in spoken reo Māori to share and respond to information, ideas, and opinions involves:

- using relevant language in unrehearsed and unscripted conversation
- referring to past and present events or experiences
- achieving overall communication despite errors.

Interact capably in spoken reo Māori to share and respond to information, ideas, and opinions involves:

- using interactive strategies to support conversation
- using a range of language
- building on aspects of the information, ideas, and opinions exchanged
- achieving communication that is not significantly hindered by errors.

Interact skilfully in spoken reo Māori to share and respond to information, ideas, and opinions involves:

- using interactive strategies that enhance conversation
- using a range of language successfully
- achieving communication that is not hindered by errors.

2 Language refers to vocabulary, formulaic expressions, and sentence structures that are used to share information, ideas, and opinions in relation to the chosen communicative context.

A range of language refers to showing evidence of variety in language use.

Examples include:

- breadth in vocabulary use
- using different sentence types
- coverage of different communicative functions appropriate to the context (for example exclamation, simple description, sequencing, instructions, responding, accepting, or rejecting).

Using a range of language successfully involves demonstrating consistent mastery of quality language appropriate to the level and chosen context.

Examples include:

- generally accurate production of language overall
- well-chosen and varied vocabulary and structures which add interest
- controlled use of te reo Māori sentence structures.

3 Interactive strategies are used to facilitate or support conversation and are appropriate to the context.

Examples include:

- asking and responding to questions
- reacting to the speaker to show understanding
- self-correcting
- seeking clarification.

Interactive strategies that enhance conversation refer to strategies that help ensure a quality exchange and require a higher degree of linguistic proficiency to achieve.

Examples include:

- prompting
- engaging with and extending on specific detail in a partner's responses
- showing flexibility to move between points
- anticipating and responding to conversational cues.

4 Errors are mistakes which affect overall communication or clarity of message.

Examples include:

- pronunciation or intonation
- word choice
- sentence structure.

- 5 This achievement standard is intended to assess students who are acquiring skill in te reo Māori. The level it describes is designed to be accessible to those who only begin formal study of the language in junior secondary school.
 - 6 This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and the objectives at Level 6 of Te Aho Arataki Marau mō te Ako i Te Reo Māori - Kura Auraki.
