Guidance Information

- 1 The basic principles underpinning tikanga are common, but while there are some constants, the details of performance of tikanga, and their explanation, may differ. These differences may be at a whānau, hapū, iwi, marae, or rohe level. The context of the learning should include the tikanga of the local mana whenua (if capable) but learning others' tikanga is also encouraged.
- 2 Recommended skills and knowledge
It is recommended that Reo Māori and Tikanga unit standards at level 2 or higher have been achieved or demonstrate equivalent skills and knowledge.
- 3 Tikanga are Māori values, processes and practices and procedures exercised by Māori in their daily lives. These reflect the concepts upon which they are based and provide guidelines for appropriate behaviour and conduct in Māori society. They also prescribe consequences for any breaches or when tikanga is not followed. They can be particular to whānau, hapū, iwi, hapori, marae or rohe.
- 4 In the context of whāngai tamariki, customary means pre-1955 and contemporary means post-1955. Refer to Act.
- 5 Evidence may be presented in a number of ways that may include, but are not limited to – oral presentations, visual presentations, written presentations, whakaari, waiata, haka.
- 6 The resource support listed is given as a guide only and is not intended to be in any way prescriptive. It is acknowledged that different areas may have their own written and unwritten repositories of knowledge relevant to this unit standard.
