Explanatory notes

1 Definitions

A process is a number of related techniques or a planned sequence, or a systematic series of actions.

A technique is a single activity such as marking a hem, threading a needle, marking fabric.

Wearable finish is the condition of a completed garment. Specific requirements may be set by the assessor or can be negotiated between the assessor and the candidate. These may include but are not limited to – choice of processes to meet requirements of end use; processes completed to appropriate standards which may relate to purpose or use of garment, fabric selected, ease or difficulty of pattern and/or style of garment; fit; pressing and appearance.

- 2 Learning and assessment activities carried out in relation to this unit standard must be conducted in a manner that is consistent with the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992.

Outcomes and evidence requirements

Outcome 1

Develop a plan for the construction of a tailored shirt.

Evidence requirements

- 1.1 The order of work developed enables the logical construction of the tailored shirt.
- 1.2 The timeline is established to meet the projected completion date.

Outcome 2

Construct the tailored shirt.

Range collar; sleeves with placket and cuff; pocket; buttons and buttonholes.

Evidence requirements

- 2.1 The order of work is followed with any changes justified.
- 2.2 Processes and techniques used are appropriate for the pattern, style, and fabric.
- 2.3 The tailored shirt is constructed to a wearable finish and meets the requirements of end use.
- 2.4 The completion date is met with any alteration justified.
- 2.5 The evaluation identifies any improvements that could be made in further tailored shirt construction, or justifies not making any changes where improvements are not required.

Please note

Providers must be granted consent to assess against standards (accredited) by NZQA, before they can report credits from assessment against unit standards or deliver courses of study leading to that assessment.

Industry Training Organisations must be granted consent to assess against standards by NZQA before they can register credits from assessment against unit standards.

Providers and Industry Training Organisations, which have been granted consent and which are assessing against unit standards must engage with the moderation system that applies to those standards.

Requirements for consent to assess and an outline of the moderation system that applies to this standard are outlined in the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR). The CMR also includes useful information about special requirements for organisations wishing to develop education and training programmes, such as minimum qualifications for tutors and assessors, and special resource requirements.
