Explanatory Notes

- 1 This achievement standard is derived from the listening skills achievement objectives in the Language Skills of Chinese in the New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 1995, up to and including Level 7.
- 2 Communication functions, language structures, vocabulary and socio-cultural aspects will be consistent with levels up to and including Level 7 of the Chinese curriculum guidelines, or equivalent.
- 3 Assessment activities and student responses will reflect socio-cultural aspects as appropriate.

- 4 Definitions:
- Less familiar contexts refers to topics/communicative situations/settings that may be outside the personal experience of the learner but have been learned about in the course of instruction and are appropriate to the language and culture up to and including Level 7 of the Chinese curriculum guidelines, or equivalent.
  - Spoken texts could include simulated or adapted excerpts from a radio broadcast or television programme; or a news item, story, conversation, or interview on audio/video cassette.
  - Good, very good and excellent are general descriptors that are defined in the context of each specific assessment schedule, with reference to the quantity and quality of understanding required by the Chinese curriculum, up to and including Level 7, or equivalent.
- 5 This achievement standard is to be used in conjunction with the vocabulary and structures appendix for Chinese that can be accessed from <http://www.tki.org.nz/e/community/ncea/support.php>.
- 6 Evidence will be required from responses to at least two different types of spoken texts.
