Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from the Learning Languages Communication Strand, Curriculum Level 6 of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Latin, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>. Curriculum Level 6 includes the language and cultural knowledge needed to demonstrate understanding of information and ideas through different text types and to express and respond to personal ideas and opinions.
- Definitions:
Present means to apply linguistic and socio-cultural knowledge to communicate relevant information, ideas and Latin references from resources and/or previously studied material. The presentation uses oral or written English which may be supported by other media and developed with the use of other material

Present in depth means particular selected information, ideas and Latin references are expanded on and unambiguously communicated in English.

Present comprehensively means particular selected information, ideas and Latin references are fully expanded on, with evidence given using Latin references/quotations from previously studied material to support answers. Any Latin reference/quotation should have an English explanation. The Latin evidence given is appropriate and unambiguous. Latin references could include mention of Roman artefacts, Latin terms, phrases, quotations, images, maps or other material.

Roman viewpoint refers to ancient Roman attitude(s) to socio-cultural practices, achievements and beliefs, such as the Roman attitude to slaves, education, marriage, family life, conquest, civic buildings and heroes.
