Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from Level 6 of the Social Sciences learning area of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Classical Studies, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.
- Demonstrate understanding* means to provide a description of an important historical figure, and explain why this individual was important in the classical world using primary source evidence.

Demonstrate in-depth understanding means to give an informed explanation of why this individual was important in the classical world.

Features of an informed explanation will include but are not limited to:

- using primary source evidence of specific relevance to the context
- explaining aspects/factors that relate to the important historical figure.

Demonstrate perceptive understanding means to show insight into the reasons for the importance of the individual using primary source evidence, eg the revolt of Spartacus and the effect this had on the treatment of slaves.

Features of a perceptive understanding may include but are not limited to:

- explaining motivation for actions
- explaining cultural expectations and codes of behaviour.

- 3 An important historical figure in the classical world may refer to individuals such as Perikles, Spartacus, Julius Caesar, Cleopatra, Nero or Pliny the Elder. Elaboration of specific contexts is provided in the Teaching and Learning Guide and Assessment Specifications.
 - 4 Assessment Specifications for this achievement standard can be accessed through the Classical Studies Resources page found at <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/qualifications/ncea/ncea-subject-resources/>.
