Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, Level 7. It is aligned with the achievement objectives in the Developing Practical Knowledge, Communicating and Interpreting, Developing Ideas and Understanding the Arts in Context strands for Visual Arts, and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Visual Arts, Ministry of Education, 2011 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.
- Produce a systematic body of work* involves making individual, related works that form a series or sequence to show generation and development within the art making process. This involves editing, selecting and ordering of work.

Produce a purposeful body of work involves making individual, related works that are selected to form a series or sequence to show generation, development and extension of ideas within the art making process.

Produce a fluent body of work involves making individual, related works that are critically selected to form a series or sequence in the generation, development, clarification and regeneration of ideas within the art making process.

- 3 Conventions within design refer to the appropriate use of characteristics and constraints applicable and fitting to the field.
- 4 Assessment Specifications for this achievement standard can be accessed through the Visual Arts Resources page found at <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/qualifications/ncea/subjects/>.
