Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, Health and Physical Education learning area Level 7 achievement objectives (relevant to the context used), and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Health and Physical Education, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

Assessment will be consistent with and reflect the underlying and interdependent concepts of the Health and Physical Education learning area: Hauora, attitudes and values, the socio-ecological perspective, and health promotion (The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, p22).

- Examine* involves explaining how and why a sporting event, a physical activity, or a festival is significant, with reference to relevant sociological factors and issues for self, others and society.

Examine, in-depth, involves giving full and thorough explanations for the significance of a sporting event, a physical activity, or a festival, with reference to relevant sociological factors and issues for self, others and society. Explanations are supported by evidence such as quotations, case studies, research, examples, personal accounts.

Examine critically involves explaining the interrelationship between relevant sociological factors and the significance of a sporting event, a physical activity, or a festival, for self, others and society by:

- identifying assumptions
- identifying who is advantaged and disadvantaged
- considering pros and cons
- making judgements and providing supporting evidence.

3 Significance for self, others and society is derived from sociological factors and issues such as:

- societal
- political
- economic
- environmental
- ethical
- cultural
- historical.

4 Others may include friends, family, or whānau.

5 Society may include community, hapū, iwi, region, nation, or global society.

6 A sporting event, a physical activity, or a festival could include:

- national and international sporting events (eg World Cups, Super 14, Olympics, Wimbledon)
- local sporting events and competitions (eg Secondary School Tournament week)
- multi sport and community sporting events (eg Coast to Coast, Round the Bays, City to Surf, X-Games)
- pilates, snowboarding, Ultimate Frisbee, and other physical activities
- festivals involving movement (eg Kapa Haka competitions, Pasifika cultural dance competitions, Highland Games).

7 The significance of a sporting event, a physical activity, or a festival may relate to:

- the context or concept of the event, activity or festival
- an incident in or at the event, activity or festival
- an issue related to the event, activity or festival.
