Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, Level 8. It is aligned with the achievement objectives in the Understanding the Arts in Context, Developing Practical Knowledge, Developing Ideas, and Communicating and Interpreting strands for Visual Arts, and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Visual Arts, Ministry of Education, 2012 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.
- Produce a systematic body of work that integrates conventions and regenerates ideas* involves bringing conventions together to revisit ideas from the student's previous work in order to re-form and extend ideas into new work.

Produce a systematic body of work that purposefully integrates conventions and regenerates particular ideas involves the informed selection and considered combination of particular conventions to select, revisit and refine ideas from the student's previous work in order to re-form and extend ideas into new work and achieve an intended outcome.

Produce a systematic body of work that synthesises conventions and regenerates a depth of ideas involves bringing together critically selected ideas and methods from different sources to integrate the conventions and to critically revisit and refine ideas from the student's previous work in order to re-form and provide options for the extension of ideas into new work and achieve an intended outcome.

- 3 A systematic body of work refers to related works that form a series or sequence to show generation and development within the art making process. Development involves editing, selection, and ordering of work.
  - 4 Conventions refer to the characteristics and constraints applicable and fitting to the field.
