Explanatory Notes

1 This standard is derived from the Level 7 Making Meaning strand [listening, reading, viewing] and the Creating Meaning strand [speaking, writing, viewing] and related achievement objectives in the English Learning Area of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007; and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for English, Ministry of Education, 2011 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

2 Analyse significant connections across texts involves recognising and interpreting connections across texts.

Analyse significant connections convincingly across texts involves developing reasoned and clear interpretations of connections across texts.

Analyse significant connections perceptively across texts involves developing insightful and/or original interpretations of connections across texts.

- 3 Significant connections are connections of importance and consequence and may relate to:
- purposes and audiences
 - ideas
 - language features
 - structures.
- 4 Supported by evidence refers to the use of specific and relevant details from the text to support analysis.
- 5 At least four texts (written, oral and/or visual; short and/or extended) must be included. The texts selected for study may be any combination of written, visual and/or oral. At least one text must be student selected.
