Explanatory Notes

1 This achievement standard is derived from Level 7 of the Social Sciences learning area of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Classical Studies, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

2 Examine involves:

- using primary source evidence
- giving an explanation of aspect(s) of socio-political life in the classical world
- showing understanding of a wider cultural context
- drawing conclusions.

Examine, in-depth, involves:

- giving an informed explanation of aspect(s) of socio-political life in the classical world
- drawing conclusions that are supported by primary source evidence.

Features of an informed explanation include:

- using primary source evidence of specific relevance to the context
- explaining a range of aspects and/or factors.

Examine, with perception, involves:

- giving an explanation that shows insight into aspect(s) of socio-political life in the classical world (eg the status and power of a particular class within the social hierarchy), as communicated through literary, art historical, and/or archaeological evidence
- drawing developed conclusions.

Features of a perceptive explanation may include but are not limited to:

- reasons for similarities and differences
- themes and patterns
- cultural expectations and codes of behaviour
- recognition of limitations of sources of evidence.

- 3 Socio-political life means the relationship between individuals, society and government. Elaboration of suggested contexts is provided in the Teaching and Learning Guide and Assessment Specifications.
  - 4 Assessment Specifications for this achievement standard can be accessed through the Classical Studies Resources page found at <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/qualifications/ncea/ncea-subject-resources/>.
