Explanatory Notes

- 1 This achievement standard is derived from the Health and Physical Education learning area in The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007; Level 7 achievement objectives (relevant to the context used); and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Health and Physical Education, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

Assessment will be consistent with and reflect the underlying concepts (Hauora, socio-ecological perspective, health promotion, attitudes and values) of the Health and Physical Education learning area in The New Zealand Curriculum, page 22.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- 2 Analyse an adolescent health issue involves providing an explanation of:
- influences on the issue
  - consequences for well-being
  - health enhancing strategies that promote well-being in relation to the issue.

Analyse in depth, an adolescent health issue involves providing a detailed explanation of:

- how the influences have contributed to consequences for well-being in relation to the issue
- how the strategies for promoting well-being are related to the influences.

Analyse comprehensively, an adolescent health issue involves making connections within and/or between influences, consequences and strategies to show critical understanding of the underlying concepts.

- 3 An analysis of an adolescent health issue typically includes an explanation of personal, interpersonal, and societal perspectives.
- 4 An adolescent health issue is one affecting the well-being of adolescents and which is a matter of public concern. Examples of adolescent health issues include:
