It also relates to the material in the latest version of the Teaching and Learning Guide for Health and Physical Education, Ministry of Education, at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

Assessment will be consistent with and reflect the underlying and interdependent concepts of the Health and Physical Education learning area: Hauora, attitudes and values, the socio-ecological perspective, and health promotion (The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, p22).

- 4 An applied setting requires that the physical performance skills are demonstrated in an authentic setting, such as during a game in the appropriate environment or in a competitive situation.
- 5 An applied setting could include:
- tournament games or modified games
 - competition games
 - festivals or events
 - performance in an appropriate outdoor environment for outdoor activities/pursuits.
- 6 This achievement standard can be used to assess a range of physical activities. The intent is to assess how well the student performs in a physical activity. The physical activity may come from any of the key areas of learning, e.g. kayaking from outdoor education, tennis from sports studies, Te Ao Kori, and aquatics from physical activities. Offering a range of physical activities may provide more than one opportunity for assessment.
- 7 Indicators and differentiators to determine level of performance may include, but are not limited to:
- technical accuracy
 - degree of flow/fluency
 - degree of control
 - use of relevant strategies
 - making appropriate decisions
 - apparent ease of performance
 - ability of opposition
 - level of competition.

The selection of indicators and differentiators, and their relative importance, will be determined by the nature of the chosen physical activities.
