Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007; Level 8 achievement objectives Communicating and Interpreting in the Music – Sound Arts strand; and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Music, Ministry of Education, 2012 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.
- Perform* involves live presentation of music to an audience.

Perform effectively involves a technically secure performance that is stylistically appropriate and confidently communicated to the audience.

Perform convincingly involves an assured and musically expressive performance that demonstrates interpretive understanding.
- The performance demonstrates technical, musical, and presentation skills appropriate to students in at least their fifth year of instrumental study through group itinerant tuition. Each programme of music is of sufficient length and complexity to demonstrate these skills.

- 4 The featured soloist may be unaccompanied or accompanied, or a featured soloist in a small group. The featured soloist is easily heard and seen and plays a separate or uniquely identifiable part.
 - 5 A programme of music indicates that the pieces are performed consecutively within the same assessment opportunity and performance setting. For assessment, two programmes must be performed at two different concerts.
 - 6 Performances are assessed holistically to provide an overall judgement based on the weight of evidence across both programmes. Emphasis is placed on the musicality and qualities of the performances, rather than on small technical inaccuracies or minor errors.
 - 7 Improvisation may be used as evidence to meet the requirements of this standard.
 - 8 Traditional and contemporary forms of Māori music may be used for assessment against this standard.
 - 9 Featured soloists demonstrate substantially different playing techniques and skills on a different instrument from the one(s) presented for assessment in AS91417, Perform a programme of music as a featured soloist on a second instrument.
