Explanatory Notes

2 Demonstrate understanding involves making meaning of written and/or visual Chinese by responding in own choice of English/Te Reo Māori and/or Chinese to the information and varied perspectives in the Chinese read and/or viewed.

Demonstrate clear understanding involves selecting relevant information and varied perspectives from the texts and communicating them unambiguously.
Demonstrate thorough understanding involves expanding on relevant information and varied perspectives from the texts with supporting detail. Evidence shows understanding of the implied meanings or conclusions, where relevant, within the texts.

3 Written and/or visual Chinese texts refers to a variety of Chinese texts eg media extracts on topics of social interest, short stories, articles, blogs, images, advertisements, diagrams, posters, programmes, and reports. The texts reflect the relationship between language and culture and are adapted as appropriate.

4 Extended texts refer to developed texts on both concrete and abstract matters. This may include texts that develop a line of argument.

5 Evidence may include:
   - clarifying information, ideas and opinions
   - summarising information, ideas and opinions
   - producing, annotating, amending, or completing visual representations of ideas eg maps, sketches, diagrams
   - rephrasing Chinese statements for a different or specific purpose eg making a recommendation or giving advice.
