Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from the Learning Languages Communication Strand Curriculum Level 6 of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Languages, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.
- Curriculum Level 6 includes the communication skills, language and cultural knowledge needed to write a variety of texts on areas of most immediate relevance.
- Definitions
Write refers to composing and organising text in a linguistically and culturally appropriate format and style, and may include:
  - drafting
  - reworking over a period of time.

Write on areas of most immediate relevance refers to using language, related to basic personal information and past, present, and/or future experiences, in order to express personal information, ideas and opinions in culturally appropriate written Korean.

Communication is achieved overall, despite inconsistencies, such as:

- format
- spelling
- lexical choice
- level of formality
- language conventions
- language features.

Convincing means that there is development of the information, ideas and opinions which is generally credible and connected. The writer selects and uses a range of language and language features that are fit for purpose and audience. Communication is not significantly hindered by inconsistencies.

Effective means that there is development of the information, ideas and opinions which is controlled and integrated. The writer capably selects and successfully uses language and language features that are fit for purpose and audience. Communication is not hindered by inconsistencies.

Variety refers to texts selected from a range of different text types, which have been created for different purposes. At all times the quality of the texts in the selection, considered as a whole, is more important than length.
