Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from the Level 7 Communication, Language Knowledge, and Cultural Knowledge strands in the Learning Languages Learning Area of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007; and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Languages, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.
- Give a spoken presentation* involves communicating information, and expressing and justifying ideas and opinions in culturally appropriate spoken Cook Islands Māori. Communication is achieved overall, despite inconsistencies in relation to:
 - language features
 - pronunciation
 - intonation
 - gesture
 - rhythm patterns
 - delivery speed or audibility

- stress
- tones.

Give a convincing spoken presentation involves developing and connecting information, ideas, and opinions in Cook Islands Māori that is generally credible. A range of language and language features are selected and used that are fit for purpose and audience. Communication is not significantly hindered by inconsistencies.

Give an effective spoken presentation involves developing and integrating information, ideas, and opinions in Cook Islands Māori that is controlled. A range of language and language features that are fit for purpose and audience are capably selected and successfully used. Communication is not hindered by inconsistencies.

- 3 Communicating information, ideas and opinions may include but is not limited to:
- explaining and/or responding to images and/or cultural practices
 - telling a story and/or stories
 - reflecting on family and/or personal and/or everyday events
 - exploring hopes and dreams
 - describing reactions to experiences.
