Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and relates to the strands Understanding the Arts in Context, and Communicating and Interpreting, in Drama Level 7. It is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Drama, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- Examine the work of a playwright* involves exploring the concerns of the playwright, and where and how they are expressed in their work. It also involves exploring one or more of the following:
 - the social and/or historical world of the playwright as it relates to the chosen texts
 - the common and/or contrasting ideas and concerns evident in the plays
 - the style, structure and purpose of the plays.
 - the performance space and its influence on the plays
 Extracts from two or more texts must be examined.

Examine the work of a playwright showing an informed understanding involves giving detailed explanations and providing examples to illustrate statements. Examples are to be taken from the texts to articulate the playwright's ideas in detail and with clarity.

Examine the work of a playwright showing a perceptive understanding involves making insightful connections between the play and the wider world of the play and the playwright.
