Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and relates to the strands Developing Practical Knowledge, and Understanding the Arts in Context, in Drama Level 7. It is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Drama, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- Discuss drama elements, techniques, conventions and technologies within live performance* involves relating the use of the drama elements, conventions, techniques, and technologies to the meaning of the performed text.

Discuss drama elements, techniques, conventions and technologies within live performance in an informed manner involves giving detailed explanations and providing examples to illustrate statements. It involves explaining the effect of the use of the drama elements, conventions, techniques, and technologies by making relevant references to the performed text.

Discuss drama elements, techniques, conventions and technologies within live performance in a perceptive manner involves giving insightful explanations of the effect of the use of the drama elements, conventions, techniques and technologies, drawing inferences from the performed text, and making connections to the candidate's own and/or the wider world.

Elements refer to role, time, place, situation, action, tension, mood, contrast, focus and symbol.

Conventions refer to ways of working in drama or theatre that explore meaning, deepen understanding, or are established practices.

Techniques refer to use of voice, body, movement and use of space.

Technologies refer to sound, lighting, set, costume, properties, stage design, special effects and make-up.

Live performance refers to drama or theatre performance.

The meaning of the performed text may relate to themes, issues, concerns, subtext, or dramatic intention.
