Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from the Level 7 achievement objectives in the Social Sciences Learning Area of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007; and is related to the three strands in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Media Studies, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- Produce a design and plan* involves completing a concept, treatment, and pre-production activities that:
 - contain design choices that meet the requirements of a given brief
 - incorporate a range of key features of the medium and/or genre
 - identify practicalities that may affect the production process

- identify milestone dates and resources required to complete pre-production activities
- demonstrate evidence of reflection and reworking of ideas
- have some appeal to the target audience.

Produce a detailed design and plan involves completing a detailed concept, treatment, and pre-production activities that:

- consider the impact of practicalities on the production process
- identify milestone dates and allocate required resources to complete pre-production activities
- demonstrate evidence of refinement of ideas through reflection and reworking
- appeals to and/or have some impact on the target audience.

Produce a detailed, integrated design and plan involves completing a precise concept, treatment, and detailed pre-production activities that:

- incorporate the key features of the medium and/or genre into a coherent whole
- consider the impact of practicalities on the production process and outline strategies to overcome potential obstacles
