Explanatory Notes

- 1 This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, Level 7 achievement objective Developing Ideas in the Music – Sound Arts strand; and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Music, Ministry of Education, 2011 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- 2 Compose involves the individual and/or collaborative generation, development, structuring, and representation of original musical ideas to create music. A student may compose either two compositions as an individual, or two compositions as a member of a group(s), or one of each.

Substantial pieces involves the music being of sufficient length and complexity to sustain development of musical ideas within an extended structure.

Effective involves the musical ideas being developed, structured, and represented coherently, and the music demonstrating style and character.

Convincing involves the musical ideas being developed, structured and represented skilfully, the music demonstrating stylistic assurance and flair, and communicating with impact.

- 3 Generation refers to the creation of musical ideas eg riffs, motifs, chords, ostinato, use of tonal centre(s).
- 4 Development refers to the way that musical ideas are manipulated using compositional devices eg repetition, sequence, layering, variation of texture and timbre, te mita o te reo Māori.
- 5 Structure refers to the way that ideas are organised or constructed into a coherent composition eg introduction, coda, chord structure, transitions, whakapapa (genealogical narrative).
- 6 Representation must convey compositional intent as appropriate to the style/genre. Representation must include both audio and visual representation.
- 7 Representation of a composition by an individual must comprise:
 - an audio file playable on a CD player or computer without specialised music software
 - a visual representation that is appropriate to the style/genre. Visual representation must convey compositional intent as appropriate to the style/genre eg standard music notation, lyric and chord chart, lead sheet, tab with rhythmic indications, graphic notation, narrative description, or a combination of these.
- 8 Representation of a collaborative composition must comprise:
 - a visual representation that is appropriate to the style/genre. Visual representation must convey compositional intent as appropriate to the style/genre eg standard music notation, lyric and chord chart, lead sheet, tab with rhythmic indications, graphic notation, narrative description, or a combination of these.
- 9 Collaborative composition must involve 2–5 students, working in a group. Each student's creative contribution to the group composition must be individually assessed.
- 10 Performance of improvised passages must be by the composer. Sufficient detail must be supplied in the visual representation to give a clear indication of the composer's intentions.
- 11 The assessment criteria must be applied to provide an overall judgment based on the weight of evidence across both compositions.
- 12 Conditions of Assessment related to this achievement standard can be found at <http://ncea.tki.org.nz/Resources-for-Internally-Assessed-Achievement-Standards>.
