Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from the Level 7 Social Studies achievement objectives from the Social Sciences learning area in The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007
 - understand how communities and nations meet their responsibilities and exercise their rights in local, national, and global contexts
 - understand how conflicts can arise from different cultural beliefs and ideas and be addressed in different ways with differing outcomes and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Social Studies, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- Describe how cultural conflict(s) can be addressed* involves using social studies concepts and giving specific evidence to:
 - describe the focus of the cultural conflict(s)
 - describe the individual(s)/group(s)/society(s) involved and their points of view, values and perspectives

- describe the factors which shape the way the conflict(s) is addressed
- describe way(s) of addressing the conflict(s).

Describe, in depth, how cultural conflict(s) can be addressed involves describing possible outcomes arising from ways of addressing the conflict(s).

Describe comprehensively how cultural conflict(s) can be addressed involves recommending a way of addressing the conflict(s) to achieve the desired outcomes for society.

- 3 Addressed is used in the sense of an active approach towards resolution of the conflict(s). Words that carry the same sense as address include but are not limited to: mediation, intervention, reconciliation, suppression, containment, concealment, revolution, democratic action, control.

Factors which shape may include but are not limited to: points of view of groups and individuals and/or economic; religious; political; historic; geographic; sociological; psychological phenomena.

- 4 Information about points of view, values and perspectives can be found in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Social Studies.
