- This achievement standard is derived from The Arts Learning Area of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and relates to the strands Understanding the Arts in Context, and Communicating and Interpreting for Drama Level 8. It also relates to the material in the latest version of the Teaching and Learning Guide for Drama, Ministry of Education at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako for the relevant learning area.

- Demonstrate understanding of the work of a drama or theatre theorist or practitioner* involves applying the knowledge, and ideas or processes of a practitioner or theorist to communicate the intention of their work.

Demonstrate informed understanding of the work of a drama or theatre theorist or practitioner involves justifying the application in relation to the intention of the work of a practitioner or theorist.

Demonstrate perceptive understanding of the work of a drama or theatre theorist or practitioner involves justifying, with insight, the application in relation to the intention of the work of a practitioner or theorist.

- 3 A drama or theatre theorist is a person whose writing and/or practice has been innovative and influential in shaping world theatre.
 - 4 A practitioner is a person who has (or has had) a significant influence on the development of theatre or drama practice.
 - 5 Applying refers to implementation in a presentation or practical demonstration of knowledge and understanding gained through research and practical exploration.
