Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from the Learning Languages learning area, Communication strand, Curriculum Level 8 of The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007; and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Languages, Ministry of Education, 2012 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>.
- Give a clear spoken presentation* involves explaining and justifying a viewpoint in culturally appropriate spoken Cook Islands Māori. Communication is achieved overall despite inconsistencies in, for instance:
 - language features
 - pronunciation
 - intonation
 - gesture
 - rhythm patterns
 - delivery speed or audibility
 - stress patterns

- tones.

Give a clear, convincing spoken presentation involves explaining and justifying a viewpoint, in Cook Islands Māori that is generally credible and connected. A range of language and language features are selected and used that are fit for purpose and audience. Communication is not significantly hindered by inconsistencies.

Give a clear, effective spoken presentation involves explaining and justifying a viewpoint, in Cook Islands Māori that is controlled and integrated. A range of language and language features are capably selected and successfully used that are fit for purpose and audience. Communication is not hindered by inconsistencies.

- 3 Clear refers to language that gives no doubt as to intended meaning.
- 4 Critical response refers to a presentation which includes analysis, interpretation, or evaluation of stimulus material.
- 5 Stimulus material refers to any linguistically and culturally appropriate material used as a starting point for a spoken presentation, such as text, poster, music video, lyrics, literature, TV, film, personal experience and the observation of cultural practices. Contexts may be concrete or abstract. The stimulus material may either be chosen by the student or provided by the assessor.
