Explanatory Notes

- 1 Produce resolved artwork appropriate to established art making conventions involves:
- using media and techniques relevant to the art making convention
 - using appropriate established practices that are informed by a related set of conventions
 - identifying the specific design and production conventions appropriate to an established practice.

Produce resolved artwork with control appropriate to established art making conventions involves:

- consistently managing media and techniques relevant to the art making conventions.

Produce resolved artwork with fluency appropriate to established art making conventions involves:

- skillfully managing media and techniques relevant to the art making conventions.
- 2 A resolved artwork is a single sustained and significant artwork. It is the most effective communication of an idea or narrative with the appropriate technical finish.
 - 3 An established practice encompasses the manner in which an artwork is created, viewed, experienced, and valued. It acknowledges and specifies the unique characteristics and constraints, stylistic intent, processes, materials, and techniques unique to the artwork.
 - 4 Refer to the NCEA glossary for Māori, Pacific, and further subject-specific terms and concepts.
 - 5 This achievement standard is derived from the Arts Learning Area at Level 6 of The New Zealand Curriculum: Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007.
