Explanatory Notes

1 Demonstrate understanding of spoken German related to everyday contexts involves:

- identifying the meaning of relevant aspects of information, ideas, and opinions in spoken German
- communicating understanding despite inconsistencies.

Demonstrate sound understanding of spoken German related to everyday contexts involves:

- connecting the meaning of relevant aspects of information, ideas, and opinions in spoken German with supporting detail
- communicating understanding that is not significantly hindered by inconsistencies.

Demonstrate thorough understanding of spoken German related to everyday contexts involves:

- interpreting the meaning from a comprehensive selection of relevant information, ideas, and opinions in spoken German with precision
- communicating understanding that is not hindered by inconsistencies.

- 2 Everyday contexts relate to events or experiences that are familiar and relevant to the student and may reflect German-speaking communities, te ao Māori, the Pacific, and Aotearoa New Zealand.

Examples of everyday contexts could include:

- food
- daily routines
- around town
- sports.

- 3 Identifying meaning, connecting meaning, and interpreting meaning all involve applying knowledge of German vocabulary, grammar, and cultural references to understand the context, audience, and purpose of spoken German.

- 4 When demonstrating understanding of spoken German, inconsistencies are points of misunderstanding, omission, or addition which impact the overall meaning or clarity of response.

Examples include:

- misunderstanding or misrepresenting information
- drawing conclusions based on partial evidence
- information that is not linked to the source material.

- 5 This achievement standard is intended to assess students who are acquiring skill in German. The level it describes is designed to be accessible to those who only begin formal study of the language in junior secondary school.

- 6 Refer to the NCEA glossary for Māori, Pacific, and further subject-specific terms and concepts

- 7 This achievement standard is derived from the Learning Languages Learning Area at Level 6 of The New Zealand Curriculum: Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007.
