INSTRUCTIONS

You should read the Introduction before analysing Sources A–F in the resource booklet. The introduction will provide a context for your examination of the sources.

You may wish to identify, highlight, or annotate aspects of the sources in the resource booklet. However, this will not be assessed.

In your answers, you should:

- go beyond the immediately obvious information in the sources in order to draw conclusions
- if appropriate, note relevant question(s) that the sources might raise in an historian's mind, which the historian might wish to investigate further
- where appropriate, consider who created the source and for what purpose.

QUESTION ONE

Refer to the Introduction and Sources A–F in the resource booklet when answering this question.

Examine the purpose of the New Zealand International Exhibition, 1906–1907.
